TRANSFORMATIVE SUPPLIERS

Invite you to Aquasur Tech 2023, this is the first event for a networking in Chilean Patagonia between transformational suppliers for the Aquaculture industry with the target to support the challenges to propose the developed the industry in dialogue with with the environmental requirements, social engagement and Governance, in the context of ESG Reports and Sustainability oriented innovation (SOI).

With the proposal to share with the diversity of actors and referents involved in the development of the aquaculture industry and support the promise to be able to feed the future.

We design a space that will promote the building of a network of interchange of technology necessities and vanguard solutions and knowledge between producers and suppliers from the aquaculture industry.

During this event you could be able to update about the latest technologies and approaches from the financing institutions relative to the transformations of the industry to 2030.

We appreciate your stay with us and look forward to your participation.
